

Local Matters.

TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 25, 1859.
More or less.—President of the city, and kind, as those will find who give him a call.

RACONNE'S COURT.—Supt.—Most have been kept to judge by the small number on the Rector's book. He had only nine cases.

THURSDAY.—For late paper we thank Eliz. Miller, of the office, Mrs. Jas. Pepper, of the Gladiolus, Prof. of the Eldon, James H. Tolson, of the Philadelphian, and the clerk of the E. & W. Ward.

Col. Wm. H. Pitt, of Middle Tennessee, and the Hon. John W. Coker, of Clarksville, were at the Goyer House, Col. Pitt, whom we have had the pleasure of meeting, is looking fine health.

DECEASED.—Five ungrateful scolds, in whom the good city of Memphis furnished its first lodgings, have now left the stage, leaving their seats now to the Goyer Theatre, and got out of the way.

RAISONNE'S COURT.—Supt.—Most have been kept to judge by the small number on the Rector's book. He had only nine cases.

THURSDAY.—For late paper we thank Eliz. Miller, of the office, Mrs. Jas. Pepper, of the Gladiolus, Prof. of the Eldon, James H. Tolson, of the Philadelphian, and the clerk of the E. & W. Ward.

Col. Wm. H. Pitt, of Middle Tennessee, and the Hon. John W. Coker, of Clarksville, were at the Goyer House, Col. Pitt, whom we have had the pleasure of meeting, is looking fine health.

DECEASED.—Five ungrateful scolds, in whom the good city of Memphis furnished its first lodgings, have now left the stage, leaving their seats now to the Goyer Theatre, and got out of the way.

RAISONNE'S COURT.—Supt.—Most have been kept to judge by the small number on the Rector's book. He had only nine cases.

THURSDAY.—For late paper we thank Eliz. Miller, of the office, Mrs. Jas. Pepper, of the Gladiolus, Prof. of the Eldon, James H. Tolson, of the Philadelphian, and the clerk of the E. & W. Ward.

Port of Memphis.

Business Notices.

Great Railroads' Competition. At Memphis, February 2d, 1859.—All persons interested in the construction of railroads, and in the promotion of commerce, are invited to present their plans to the President of the Pacific, or other route, for consideration at the earliest opportunity.

The river continued to fall slowly, and yesterday the day was fine and frosty, and the atmosphere bright, and the water low.

The splendor and magnificence of the great river, and the beauty of the surrounding landscape, are well worth the visit of all.

The steamer Mississippi has just arrived.

The Admiral, the day last, commanded by Capt. J. W. Rodger, U. S. N., who has been appointed to the command of the Mississippi, has just arrived.

The steamer Mississippi has just arrived.